

Seeds of Caring PHSA #90241

A conference for caregiving professionals in our community

The Alaska Faith Community Nursing Resource Center presents this event designed to help caregivers learn ways to stay healthy, and even thrive, in their important roles providing care.

Date: Saturday, April 1, 2017
Time: 8 a.m. – 4:45 p.m.
Cost: $75 registration fee (includes continental breakfast, lunch and refreshments)
Location: East & West Auditoriums,
Providence Alaska Medical Center
3200 Providence Dr., Anchorage, AK 99508

Keynote Speaker Peter Rosenberger

Peter is a seasoned caregiver, as well as a passionate advocate and champion for all those providing care. His in-depth understanding of health care systems allows him to provide a voice of experience that speaks directly to the heart of a caregiver. Peter brings a message of hope and humor, with deep compassion, into the difficult places of caregiving. For more information, please visit standingwithhope.com.

Additional conference sessions will address how to identify, define and communicate caregiving

Nursing CNEs will be awarded for participation in the full conference.

Registration: Space is limited; please register by March 15. Late registration is based on availability.

Online registration is available at alaska.providence.org/education; click on the events calendar, and search for "Seeds of Caregiving Conference" to register. Providence caregivers must register through HealthStream (PHSA 90241).

Cancellation policy: Registration includes a $25 non-refundable charge; the remainder of the fee is refundable if notice is received at least one working day before the conference. Note: there are no refunds, without advance-cancellation. To cancel, please call PALI (907) 212-3011.
