

Continuing Education Nurse Planner

The Alaska Nurses Association (AaNA) is currently seeking an exceptional nurse to join our team of dedicated staff as a Nurse Planner.

Position Description: The Nurse Planner is responsible for the planning, implementation, and evaluation of continuing nursing education for AaNA's Continuing Education Program.

Core Responsibilities

- Develops, implements, and evaluates continuing nursing education offerings.
- Participates in data collection and program evaluation related to development of educational programs.
- Maintains knowledge of adult learning principles and continuing education approved provider program criteria.
- Assists in maintaining course library.
- Works to identify learning needs and education deficits for Alaska nurses.
- Participates as an integral member of AaNA's Continuing Education Committee
- Develops relationships with relevant organizations to produce educational partnerships for the benefit of Alaska nurses.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will possess a baccalaureate degree or higher in nursing and will be a licensed registered nurse. Candidate must possess excellent communication skills and adaptability to varied work structures. The ability to work both collaboratively and independently on various tasks is required. Candidate must maintain a high level of professionalism. The successful candidate is required to maintain current membership with AaNA.

This position is part-time, 10+ hours per week with a flexible schedule. Competitive compensation, DOE.

To apply, please email CV and cover letter to andrea@aknurse.org. Position remains open until filled.