

Legislative Committee Chair

The Alaska Nurses Association (AaNA) is currently seeking an exceptional nurse to join our team of dedicated staff as Legislative Committee Chair. This is a part-time position.

Position Description: The Legislative Committee Chair is responsible for leading and coordinating efforts of AaNA's Legislative Program under the direction of the Board of Directors. This position coordinates with AaNA's Professional Practice Committee, Health and Safety Committee, and Editorial Committee.

Core Responsibilities

- Works with the AaNA Board of Directors to develop and recommend policies and objectives for AaNA.
- Studies proposed federal, state, and local nursing-related, health-related, and labor-related legislation for its implications for the community at large, the labor movement, nurses, and the nursing profession.
- Maintains a relationship with outside agencies and legislators regarding AaNA's legislative goals and priorities.
- Participates and speaks at conventions or other area-wide meetings about the overall goals of the AaNA and its Legislative Committee.
- Implements a framework for Legislative Committee work based on AaNA's annual resolutions.
- Prepares for and leads AaNA Legislative Committee meetings.
- Participates in AaNA's Editorial Committee and contributes articles to AaNA's bimonthly publication, The Alaska Nurse
- Seeks and develops member and affiliate participation.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will possess a baccalaureate degree or higher in nursing and will be a licensed registered nurse. Candidate must possess excellent communication skills, professionalism, and vision and be able to coordinate multiple projects at one time. Ability to conduct research and to develop and implement strategies for meeting AaNA's legislative goals and engaging members is required. Current membership in AaNA is required.

This position is part-time, 10+ hours per week with a flexible schedule. Competitive compensation, DOE.

To apply, please email CV and cover letter to andrea@aknurse.org. Position remains open until filled.